

Elizabeth Pounds

Associate

E-mail: epounds@whprealty.com

As a member of the WHPounds team, Miss Pounds contributes a specialized knowledge of the office space in the Philadelphia Sub-Market of South Jersey. Elizabeth is attentive to clients' needs and seeks to provide a personalized and positive experience when assisting clients to lease, purchase, or sell office property. Her analytical skills help her to evaluate office space for a client's requirement and assess various assets a property has to offer. She honed these skills while completing her undergraduate studies, which focused on the history of architecture, as well as developing her eye for detail through her study of the fine arts. Miss Pounds holds a salesperson license with the State of New Jersey, Real Estate Commission.

Formal Education

The Growth and Structure of Cities, Bachelor of Arts, Bryn Mawr College, Pennsylvania

Egyptology, American University in Cairo, Egypt

Classical Archaeology, St. Joseph's University, Italy